Reserve at Gwynedd

The property remained in agriculture until Jack and Claire Betz, who had purchased the various parcels during the 1970s and early 1980s, donated 110 acres to Natural Lands in 1986 so that the land would be forever maintained as a wildlife preserve. ## Gwynedd Preserve

Gwynedd Preserve is an oasis of nature nestled among the highly developed suburbs of Blue Bell and North Wales.

Gwynedd Council Plan 2018

The meadow and forest habitats here are particularly important because they are connected to other preserved lands in the Wissahickon Creek watershed.

Reserve at Gwynedd

We review the Plan yearly to ensure that we as a Council continue to do the things that are important to the people of Gwynedd.
