Meanwhile, the share of Hispanics who say they are religiously unaffiliated is now 23%, up from 15% in 2009.

Christianity by country

But, in the end, politics shepherded the church and not the other way around—and dissenting Christian churches were excommunicated from nationalist orthodoxy, no longer part of the people. For they are not permitted to speak but should be subordinate, as even the law says.

In U.S., Decline of Christianity Continues at Rapid Pace

More than a quarter of the French population died during the slaughters of the revolution and the Napoleonic wars. Suppose the reformer stops saying that a good woman may be like God and begins saying that God is like a good woman. It was probably the last great non-European empire until it began declining in the mid-1800s, collapsed after World War I, and had its former territory in the Middle East divided up by Western Europe.
