Work info: Pensées

His task incomplete, subsequent editors have disagreed on the order, if any, in which his writings should be read. .

Pensées

Reading the Pensées I was quickly and resolutely unsure if I had been right or wrong in my guess. Quibble: All that untranslated Latin was acceptable in 1660, when all educated people read Latin.

Pensées

Well, Pascal suggests that this is not necessarily the case, and I sort of agree with him. Pensées is laced with aphorisms.

Pensées by Blaise Pascal

Pascal gives the impression of one who is profoundly unhappy; and this despair both propels him to his heights and drags him to his depths. Diferentemente do livro de Pessoa, e provavelmente por ter sido descoberto noutro tempo, a sua primeira versão, e mais amplamente reproduzida, opta por apresentar apenas uma parte dos documentos deixados por Pascal. A collection of Theological statements 11 May 2012 - Adelaide, Australia Blaise Pascal is an enigma.

Pensée

For this reason almost all philosophers confuse the ideas of things, and speak spiritually of corporeal things and corporeally of spiritual ones. Pascal alternates between two fundamental moods in the text: the tortured doubter, and the zealous convert. Perhaps his personal physical ailments were the source of his view that man in general shared his hatred of the human body.
