The death penalty is dying a slow death; it's time we pull the plug

Between 1930 and 1976, 455 men were executed for rape, of whom 405 — 90 percent — were black.

6 Ways to Take Action to Abolish the Death Penalty

The process to try to execute him took over two hours. Those excluded from capital punishment are: the elderly, pregnant women, women with small children, the mentally ill, and teenagers under the age of 18 at the time of the crime.

Biden campaigned on eliminating death penalty

In 2007, Hafez was about to be executed again when he sent a mobile text message to Amnesty.

Death Penalty

Poor quality defense leaves many sentenced to death. Persons excused from capital punishment are women with small children, women who are pregnant, teenagers who were under 18 at time of crime, and the mentally ill. These protections often delay closure and exacerbate suffering of family members of victims.

Death Penalty

States with the death penalty s than those that do, and states following the abolition of capital punishment. Capital punishment was abolished in 1993 but was reinstated by Armed Forces Provisional Ruling Council in August 1995 In February 2018, Gambia announced a moratorium on the death penalty.

Why the Biden Administration Must Abolish the Death Penalty

On 27 December 2006, President signed into a law a new constitutional amendment totally abolishing the death penalty in all circumstances. The Case Against the Death Penalty was first published by the ACLU as a pamphlet in 1973. And while there is no way of knowing exactly how many innocent Americans have been executed, the Death Penalty Information Center points to individuals who have been put to death despite likely being innocent.
