This coating, practically all of which wore away long ago, was painted to enhance the expressions of the faces, hands, and folds of the robes; the larger one was painted red and the smaller one was painted multiple colors.

The History of Afghanistan's Bamiyan Buddhas

Beveridge notes that Babur's destruction amounted to cutting off the heads of the idols, which were restored with plaster by the Jains in the locality. However, the press release picked up by media, clearly misdates the earliest uses of oil paint in Europe, which is fully described in a treatise by of 1100-1120, and may date back to the Ancient Romans. The host first fed Buddha and they prepared the meal for all the monks who were with him.
