The impression is of a mind recalled to its full vigour, for no prejudgments have been made about it and no restraints upon it.

Jon W Dafoe by George Siamandas

For two highly eventful decades in British-Canadian relations he interpreted Canada brilliantly for the Times. Minko Sotiron, From politics to profits: the commercialization of Canadian daily newspapers, 1890—1920 Montreal and Kingston, 1997.

Biography

On this basis the socialist holds no animosity to individual newspaper editors, but it is our job nevertheless to show that the modern newspaper is a powerful institution dedicated to maintaining the supremacy of the ruling class in society. One of these three was Dafoe, who, having no use for George Washington, made his way to Adolphustown at the eastern end of Lake Ontario. Dafoe and those who own the Free Press, the writer of this sketch has no knowledge.
