At 60, the Donnell Garden remains an icon of an era

Riess: Are the gardens you saw on the summer trips gardens that you had seen in plan before? Riess: Was it a place you could play, or was it a place that you had to stay out of? We didn't take any architectural design, nothing was required and we had so many requirements that we couldn't really elect to take any in that four -year course. Yes, most of the time that I was at Kodak, from 1954 to 1972, I was at Oxhey. Then I saw a job advertised for someone to look after the laboratories, a laboratory technician, I suppose, at a teacher s training college at Cooper s Hill, near Egham, Surrey.
