How do we measure and evaluate it, and against what criteria? Additional symposium materials may be found at. How do we know it when we have it? Today we tell about the process of sustained dialogue that is being used in Africa and at American colleges.

Track I

Although there is no consensus on the language of official-unofficial cooperation e. As argued above, cooperation is not an end itself, but should be employed only to the extent that it enhances actors' abilities to more effectively reach shared or complementary goals. VOICE TWO: The Sustained Dialogue process is being used for an Arab-American-European dialogue.

Track I

His job is Sustained Dialogue Coordinator. In the future, many more cooperative mechanisms, adapted to specific needs and contexts, will likely emerge.
