The cargo frequently deteriorated, and the vessels became foul and gaping at the seams. Under the command of Lieutenant John Murray, the ship was commissioned to pursue detailed investigations on the south coast. In the southern provinces, Brabant and Flanders, Protestantism was suppressed; but the north, Holland and Zealand successfully defied the gloomy, conscientious fanatic who issued his edicts of persecution from Madrid.

A Short History of Australia [by Ernest Scott]

The change is said to have been made by Governor McDonnell of South Australia. Shackleton had a deal with a London newspaper to sell his story and pictures on his return to England, a legacy of the difficulty in providing funding for the expedition. In 'the dark backward and abysm of time' it had been the estuary of a river flowing into the ocean many miles east of the present coastline, but the sinking of the floor of the sea in the course of ages had brought it to its present level, and made it a many-fronded harbour.

Extracts from A SHORT HISTORY OF AUSTRALIA by ERNEST SCOTT

The Reformation was principally an affair of churches and forms of religious belief, but it also had far-reaching consequences touching politics, commerce, and all the manifold interests of mankind.

A Short History of Australia [by Ernest Scott]

The fragments of streams found by one explorer after another and marked in thin, disconnected streaks upon their maps, were becoming linked up. He grumbled that it had become a constant practice 'for persons who wish to get rid of some troublesome connections to obtain permission from the Secretary of State's office for their being allowed to come out here. As we have seen, the name was that of a ship.'

The Seventies

In 1611 Hendrik Brouwer, a commander of marked ability who subsequently became Governor-General of the Dutch East Indies, made a discovery.

Senators unite to block Pauline Hanson's 'all lives matter' motion

Cornelius Houtman and his brother Frederick were important pioneers of Dutch energy in the East. Edmund Burke, speaking in Parliament in 1786, said that the jails were crowded beyond measure.
