Wednesday, October 5, 2016 By: Nadine Bloch Civil society around the world has demonstrated the ability to bring about change without violence. The memo argued that because the provincial authorities in both Kosovo and Vojvodina could deal directly with the federal government, that this had made them into de facto republics outside of the control of the Serbian socialist republic. Përkundër këtyre deklarimeve, Sllobodan Milosheviqi, Karaxhiqi, dhe politikanët e tjerë serbë publikisht ranë dakord më pjesën më të madhe të memorandumit, dhe më vonë krijuan lidhje politike me disa hartues të tij si Mihailo Markoviq, i cili u bë zëvendës-president i Partisë Socialiste të Serbisë dhe Dobrica Qosiq i cili u emërua president i në vitin 1992.
