Frankenstein now finds himself slave to his imagination. Despite their lofty positions as success-markers, women are consistently portrayed as less than human. However, the poet also expresses an acute emotional attachment to Spring.

Edward Thomas: from Adlestrop to Arras review

The early civilisation of country in modern-day Cambodia cultivated a literature in , and diverged from its neighbours in creating a strain of poetry from the fifth century to the thirteenth century in which women were a source of praise and admiration. Even herself, as notes, is unable to rise totally above the masculinist ideology that she has helped us to see through and gradually to move beyond.
