Streaker runs onto US Open course and hits balls in crazy video

Seen as no longer profitable or relevant, the last Hits album was called Summer Hits 2006 and this left the series as the only hits compilation brand still going strong on the UK Compilation Album chart as of July 2021. Subsequent releases through to 1991 were released without an issue number and this successive refreshing of the Hits brand could be seen as minor relaunches of the series, each time in the face of the continuing success and strength of the rival brand.

Hits (compilation series)

There was not a version of The Hits Album 14 issued by BMG, CBS or WEA in any title variation or format and technically, what is listed as The Hits Album 15 is actually the fourteenth volume of the series. This theme ended in 1997.

Hits (compilation series)

Hits 50 would also be correctly titled if Telstar's The Hits Album 1997 was added into the main series alongside their Pure Hits 97 album, but only if 'Hits 15' is considered to be 'Hits 14'. This proved very successful, and once again the Hits series started to rival the success of the contemporaneous Now releases of the time. If the fourteenth release is considered to be 'Hits 15' then Hits 50 should have been titled 'Hits 49'.

Hits (compilation series)

A security guard on a golf cart cuts him off and tackles him to the ground. This would, shooting a plus-6 on the final round to finish tied for 26th. He is best known for his work with the Beastie Boys.

The Eye Of The Storm: Greatest Hits Tape (Official Mixtape)

From November 1989, the albums in the Hits series started using alternative titles such as and.

The Hot 100 Chart

December 1990 When the Monster Hits theme ended after only two volumes, The Hit Pack was released with much more restrained artwork and advertising. By 2004, was released and this had three discs with sixty tracks, instead of two discs, once again trying a new concept to compete with the double-CD Now compilations.

The Eye Of The Storm: Greatest Hits Tape (Official Mixtape)

The early albums contained 32 tracks, as opposed to 30 usually found on the Now compilations and reached either number 1 or number 2 on the UK Top 100 Album Chart. DeChambeau, possibly distracted by the whole ordeal, would go on to double-bogey the hole. Like the Now compilations, the artwork for The Hits Album was equally eye catching and glossy, often including three dimensional numbers and shapes.

Hits (compilation series)

The Hits Album was also a well received compilation series in the rest of Europe, and there are several European variants. It originally ran in the United Kingdom and parts of Europe for over twenty years from 1984 until 2006. August 1990 Both Monster Hits and Snap it Up! Re-released in 2005, 2006 and 2007.
