10 Human Rights Issues Of The Future

Human rights as a whole suffer when truth and access to information are endangered. As the issue becomes more severe and widespread, the international community needs to ramp up its efforts.

What is the greatest challenge to the future of human rights? We the people are Barbudos remained on Antigua for several months, while their possessions rotted from the salt and sun. As we enter a new decade, the international community has an opportunity to show a renewed commitment to human rights. Therefore, taking decisive action now is not the same as taking decisive action later.

As systems become more interconnected, the costs of such an attack will only increase WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM, 2013, p. These include the threat of criminal and domestic violence, denials of basic rights to water, sanitation, etc.

Towards 2026

Rather than a distant concern or a purely intellectual heuristic, a long-termist approach brings three key practical questions to the fore that have received scant attention in human rights.
