

Guide to producing archaeological reports

Ironbridge Institute, Ironbridge Gorge Museum - Guide for authors

Description: -

- Guide to producing archaeological reports
- Guide to producing archaeological reports

Notes: At head of cover title: The Ironbridge Institute.

This edition was published in 1987

Filesize: 18.24 MB

Tags: #Guidelines #for #Phase #I, #II, #and #III #Archaeological #Investigations #and #Technical #Report #Preparation

Guide for authors

In situations where soil strata are compacted or difficult to discern, an investigator may also use 5 cm arbitrary levels. The controlled surface collection should be conducted within a metric, grid-coordinate system superimposed upon the area to be evaluated. Please note that individual figure files larger than 10 MB must be uploaded separately.

Archaeological Archives Forum (AAF)

An act protecting New Jersey's publicly owned heritage. Information on length, width, and depth may be presented in table format; 8.

Archaeological Survey & Inventory

Current curriculum vitae of principal investigators and field directors; and f. The label on each section selector indicates what the section directly below it is. The Editor is responsible for the final decision regarding acceptance or rejection of articles.

Guide for authors

Web references As a minimum, the full URL should be given and the date when the reference was last accessed.

SitePoint

Site setting, including landform, elevation, soils, and nearest water source; 7. Archaeological properties may also be classified as individual sites or as historic or prehistoric districts NR Bulletin No. You can use the Report Wizard to create a more complicated report, or you can create a report by adding all the data and formatting elements yourself.

Archaeological Archives Forum (AAF)

This is unfortunate given the rate of site loss and how many of us are troubled by it. Research Article: A report of original research which assesses the contribution of the research outcomes to the body of knowledge in a given area.

Guidelines for Phase I, II, and III Archaeological Investigations and Technical Report Preparation

This section should focus on the relation of the investigations to state, regional, and national archaeological, architectural and historical studies.

Archaeological Survey & Inventory

Detailed disclosures as part of a separate Declaration of Interest form, which forms part of the journal's official records. The CanGrow property is located on both the Format tab and the All tab of the property sheet for the control. For projects where no cultural resources or isolated finds are identified, Abbreviated Reports are acceptable.

---

Related Books

- Kānkhāñ nangsū rātchakāñ
- Achilles - heroische Oper in zwey Aufzügen. Klavierauszug von C.F.G. Schwencke.
- Lungo viaggio verso il silenzio
- Reading across the life span
- Corbiere Township, District of Algoma. Compiled by the staff of the Resident Geologists Office, Saul