List of compositions by Karol Szymanowski

He was diagnosed with an acute form of, and in 1929 traveled to, Switzerland, for medical treatment. If you have any suggestions or comments on the guidelines, please email us.

Szymanowski, Karol, 1882

In 1913 he discovered the music of Stravinsky, excitedly proclaiming him a genius. We went through other mountain melodies, but we came back to it.

Szymanowski: The Complete Mazurkas

He moved to in where he composed fervently. The late Christopher Palmer suggested that the composer here recalled a Sicilian example which he had seen in the museum at Palermo.

Masques By Karol Szymanowski (1882)

The second Étude, in G flat major, simultaneously divides groups of six semiquavers into subsets of both two and three to create an Escher-like, dizzying sense of conflicting perceptions. Throughout Métopes, freewheeling spontaneity of gesture co-exists paradoxically with the sense of a claustrophobic inner world.
