New Age Ethics

Avoiding to see that humans have a selfish nature does not mean that selfish nature will be gone. Rather, New Age practitioners seek out a clergy member when they require a particular service, following the general pattern of community organization within the New Age. This results in a tendency among New Age practitioners toward utilizing clergy as teachers and guides rather than authority figures.

New Age Ethics

We see people filled with self-righteous indignation. Preachers calling for repentance and conversion enjoyed tremendous popularity and attracted large crowds.

New Age

However, his profligate lifestyle with his wife Zelda sapped their funds, and Fitzgerald had to struggle to maintain their lavish lifestyle. However, most were paid less than men for the same type of work based on the rationale that they did not have to support a family. Those who proclaim the divine word are to propose first of all to the Christian faithful those things which one must believe and do for the glory of God and the salvation of humanity.

The New American Morality

Notes: Buddhist Nirvana is similar to the Christian Heaven in some respects, however a significant difference is that in Heaven there is supreme joy whereas Nirvana promises freedom from desire. It is human nature to see themselves as more important and different than anyone else.
