Why Did The Mexican War Start

Authorities said they rescued two people who had been kidnapped and gagged inside a white pickup truck. Eventually, deciding to join the allied forces, Mexico closed its ports to German ships. The Americans were too eager to spread across the continent and did not care enough for the claims of other nations.

Mexico

Destruction of the walls, sandbags, and other defenses was demoralizing for many defenders, and some began abandoning their positions. Several Mexican states declared their independence from his rule.

Battle of Chapultepec

The Mexican foreign secretary, Ezequiel Padilla, took the lead in urging other Latin American countries to support the Allies as well. From this point, from March to August, Scott and Santa Anna fought a series of bloody, hard-fought battles from the coast inland toward Mexico City. The situation in Mexico was still chaotic and it looked as if France might never see its money back.
