Stationery Office (Great Britain) [WorldCat Identities]

Prior to 1921 almost all documents of importance were considered Parliamentary Papers but in that year a change resulted in many of these documents being switched to the Non-Parliamentary category. Copyright can also come into Crown ownership by means of assignment or transfer of the copyright from the legal owner of the copyright to the Crown. This replaces the USB, and has the benefit of being updated three times per year to harmonise with the European Pharmacopoeia.

Official documents

As the working documents of government, the papers encompass wide areas of social, political, economic and foreign policy, and many contributors were found outside the official world — providing evidence to committees and commissions during a time when the Lords still wielded considerable power. This service is provided by Dandy Booksellers and is updated daily.
