Reflections on Gnosticism : Boryanabooks

Yet it is a sad irony that this truth is often interwoven with the belief that we must do something cruel and combative with ourselves in order to serve God better or to be more acceptable to God.

Mysticism

For many of us, myself certainly included, that conditioning manifests as a nagging and belittling of ourselves for our shortcomings and mistakes, and an often harsh critique and minimization of our talents and successes. Just as Joseph kept watch over the Holy Family so, too, he safeguards the Church in its ongoing history. Along with loving his betrothed, he loved His God courageously.

Reflections on Saint Joseph in St. John Paul II's Redemptoris Custos

On the other hand, and speaking from personal experience, sometimes the toppling of these towers of illusion can be among the most transformative and truly illuminating experiences of our lives, despite how painful they are. However, in some instances, we may not be able to satisfy your needs.

A Path to Enlightenment: Reflections on a 10

And of course there are the very ordinary and natural limitations that arise from trying to speak about anything without chasing down and working through every possible implication or misunderstanding. Joseph, into whose guardianship the Father entrusted the precious treasures of the Virgin Mary and her son, Jesus.

Mystic Way of the Heart

She is also a key to understanding the mystical experiences many people have experienced during our own era of sickness and fear.
