Storm Warning (1951)

For its time period it was a good in presenting the war at sea, although I wouldn't call it a true war story. His writing is always good and his plots fun. It's straightforward stuff, written in an easy style, without much in the way of depth or characterisation to slow it down.

Storm Warning by Jack Higgins

Call for more information about our winter fishing trips.

Storm Warning by Jack Higgins

Dry lightning in Oregon could initiate new fires. A World War II thriller which was made into a Hollywood movies starring Michael Caine, Donald Sutherland and Robert Duvall. They are all human, more alike than different, trying to survive the insanity known as war.

N.J. weather: Tornado warnings issued as severe thunderstorms slam state

This book was written with the world war two.

National Hurricane Center

Just something to be aware of.

Storm Warning by Jack Higgins

Fish are bigger then in the spring. I've enjoyed so many of his books over the years. Marsha decides to confront Hank and Lucy about what she saw.
