Isolationism

Senator Douglas apparently thought so. The chief damage in the situation lies in the pervasive destruction of the adolescent middle-class boy and his alienation from the achieving aspects of middle-class culture.

Carroll Quigley, TRAGEDY AND HOPE

The view being expressed by the Isolationists was that the Fascists, Nazis and Communists should be left to fight it out alone. Documents 5, 6, and 8 contain statements that support slavery.

American Isolationism in the 1930s

The United States' occupation of the Philippines during the Spanish-American War thrust U.

America First Committee

A few farsighted Jewish people realize this and stand opposed to intervention.

The Evolution of American Isolationism

The chief avenue by which these ideas, which were constantly rejected by the endless discussions formulating the doctrine of the West, continued to survive was through the influence of St. Our own defenses and our own military position have already been neglected too long.
