Category 3 contains the remaining exemptions see the end of section 5.

IV. Human rights issues at all stages in employment

The attachment and commitment of part-time and temporary employees to the business was considered to be less than that of full-time and permanent employees. Under Title I, an employer is not required to make its existing facilities accessible until a particular applicant or employee with a particular disability needs an accommodation, and then the modifications should meet that individual's work needs. Completing an internship does not itself result in an academic certificate or diploma.
