Sweet Candy Company

Connolly and Tucker had a chance meeting with Wainman, who was now producing, and knew of two aspiring songwriters, and , who were looking for a group to sing some demos they had written. Due to tensions between various members attributed to Connolly's health and diminishing status with the group, his long-time friend and fellow founding member, Mick Tucker, was tasked to produce Connolly's vocals. Sweet signed a new record contract with 's label.

Sweet Candy Company

They recorded an album during this period, simply titled A.

SWEET Official

This management deal also included a worldwide record contract with , the U. Stewart then quit, and was not replaced for some time. Phil Wainman resumed his collaboration with Sweet, as executive producer.
