These twelve secrets, based on ideas from some of the world's great thinkers and advocates, will show you how to make the most persuasive argument possible and maximize your success before a judge or jury, in mediation or arbitration, and anywhere else. It then showcases invention theories and pedagogies that have emerged in the field of Rhetoric and Composition over the last four decades, including the ensuing research, critiques, and implementations of this invention work.

Kathleen E. Welch

After a discussion of treatments of invention from the Sophists to the nineteenth century, Invention in Rhetoric and Composition introduces a range of early twentieth-century multidisciplinary theories and calls for invention's awakening in the field of English studies. Important item about the notes: The lecture notes contained in the files have been developed for classroom pedagogy over the years. She has presented over sixty-five papers at international and national conferences twenty-two of them invited for plenary sessions.
