Arshile Gorky: Portraits, 980 Madison Avenue, New York, March 20

I think that seeing the effects of horror on Gorky, and how it stays with him his whole life, makes people think. Gorky moved to New York in 1925.

Arshile Gorky: A Retrospective

From 1946, Gorky suffered a series of crises: his studio burned down, he underwent an operation for cancer and his wife had an affair with Roberto Matta. In 1948, Gorky's neck was broken and his painting arm temporarily paralyzed in a car accident, and his wife left him, taking their children with her. Fifteen of Gorky's paintings and drawings were destroyed in the.

Arshile Gorky

The parents of his new wife had a farm in rural Virginia, and over the next seven years Gorky came to spend a great deal of time in the countryside there, and later in Sherman, Connecticut.
