

History of the Manor of Kingswood.

n.p.] - Kingswood Warren

Description: -

Kingswood Warren.history of the Manor of Kingswood.
-history of the Manor of Kingswood.

Notes: First published 1983.

This edition was published in 1991

Filesize: 63.41 MB

Tags: #Bristol #Past #: #History #of #Bristol #and #the #Fishponds #area

KINGSWOOD MANOR

An inscribed stone with the date was found in the east gable-head during restoration and is now preserved inside in the upper story. It is an Elizabethan house that has been very much modernized externally, the only really interesting features being the two chimney-stacks.

Kingswood, Surrey

Part of the , Kingswood is just to the east of the separating it from and has a. In particular, many cross-heads were destroyed by iconoclasts during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

Parishes: Lapworth

However, the majority of residents in the area are out of the area.

Bristol Past : History of Bristol and the Fishponds area

Thomas Underwood and Catherine his wife gave lands to the church, poor, and highways.

Notes on the derivation of the name Don John's Cross

The nave dates from the early 12th century, when it had no aisles; one window survives over the north arcade. Sir William's son William forfeited his lands for treason in 1487, but they were restored to his son George in 1495. The poor relieved constantly are about twenty-five; casually about twenty.

Kingswood Warren

Leger, esq of Ulcomb, whose grandson Sir Warham St. They made conveyances of the manor in 1798 and 1809, but, apparently under the will of Sir Lister Holte, 5th baronet, Heneage Legge exercised the rights of lord of the manor from 1782 to 1813. In the time of king Edward the Confessor, and afterwards, and now, it was and is worth thirty shillings.

Parishes: Harrietham

The Stedes were of some note in this parish for more than a century before this; for John Stede, senior, was resident here in 1460, when by his will he devised his principal mansion at Stede-street, in this parish to William his son. All monies given to the support of the miners in the Bristol district will be paid back in due time, double.

KINGSWOOD MANOR

They bore for their arms, Argent, a chevron between three bears heads couped sable, muzzled, or. It was substantially built in the Norman style of architecture, and was consecrated and dedicated to St. East of it, south of the loop-road, is a timber-framed barn of three bays of the 17th century and a west bay of two stories which is earlier 16th century having curved braces in the framing and wide flat ceiling-joists.

Related Books

- Fundamentals of item response theory
- Teachers guide to SUTOE \(Self Understanding Through Occupational Exploration\) - 1969 draft.
- Narrative of a journey through the upper provinces of India - from Calcutta to Bombay, 1824-1825, \(w\)
- New faces
- New French dictionary - in two parts