We could well face another challenging fire year, but we are better prepared, especially now that things are improving with the pandemic.

EADM: Reforming Regulation and Policy

Maybe most importantly, we have accelerated the pace of the cultural transformation begun in 2010, when I first joined the Forest Service.

In May, the Wildland Fire Leadership Council will release the Community Wildfire Playbook. Fish and Wildlife Service will ask whether there is a habitability requirement for a critical habitat and whether a decision not to exclude an area from critical habitat is judicially reviewable. An adamant proponent of utilizing the country's resources, Roosevelt wanted to insure the sustainability of those resources.

Together, we rose to the challenge of a global pandemic like nothing the world has seen in a century or more. When Congress fought his efforts to create a national park at the Grand Canyon, Roosevelt used his executive power to protect it as a national monument: In the Grand Canyon, Arizona has a natural wonder which is in kind absolutely unparalleled throughout the rest of the world. Together, we also made progress in improving forest conditions across the United States despite unprecedeted challenges from wildfires, hurricanes, bark beetle outbreaks, and other disturbances.
