Our Calling – as a model for Methodist Heritage

The calling of the Methodist Church is to respond to the gospel of God's love in Christ and to live out its discipleship in worship and mission.

Worship – work is rooted in worship

Learn & Care – stewards of a rich heritage, responsible for its care, but also custodians and tellers of its story

Service – heritage can help us to engage with our communities and neighbours

Evangelism – our heritage is a tool to speak about God's love in Christ

Our Methodist Heritage

The Chaplaincy will support a College Pastor in perpetuity and ensure on-going support for the campus ministries program and leadership in both pastoral ministry and interdenominational service projects.

UM Heritage Sunday is May 23 — Don't Misuse “Methodist” and “Methodism” — GCORR

The Methodist Church merged with the Evangelical United Brethren Church—both denominations being offspring of earlier mergers themselves.

Our Heritage

That labor-intensive birth happened on April 23, 1968. The Methodist Church was one of the last churches to locate in Germantown due to the few Methodist who lived in the community. Around that time, the first small organ was purchased.

The activities use a minimum of supplies and include pictures of the activities to help with clarity.

Heritage

Perhaps, through understanding the history and passion of John Wesley and others, they might capture the desire to do God's work and bring the good news to our world today! With vigor and resolve we embrace our four-fold heritage: 1 the 18th-Century spirit of Methodism in its fervent preaching of repentance, regeneration and holiness, yet tolerance in non-essentials, 2 the 20th-Century Fundamentalist, separatist heritage, 3 the 16th-Century Protestant Reformation, and 4 our heritage of earnestly striving to worship and serve in a manner marked by joyful sobriety, reverent enthusiasm, humble boldness and dignified simplicity.

Our Methodist Heritage

The congregation remained a Northern church until unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church North and the Methodist Episcopal Church South on November 23, 1939 when they both became The Methodist Church.
