Society of Evangelical Arminians

Posted by: John Samson Any position which advocates faith preceding regeneration is also affirming that faith is produced by our unregenerated human nature. In contrast to his contemporary theologians, Augustine drew from his reading of these scriptures that sin was passed biologically from Adam to all his descendants through the sexual act itself, thus equating sexual desire with sin. In some places Satan reigns.

Questions Answered about Sin

Thus, homosexual intercourse cannot be the union of a man and his suitable helper since the complementary biological differences do not exist. The faith He foresees is not exclusively a divine gift but partly a human decision.

Sin

This is what is commonly called total depravity, or, the carnal nature. Another way of putting it, more condensed but equally sound, would be: A testimony of God's grace to us confirmed by an external sign, with our answering witness of piety towards him. If it is unavoidable, however, it is excusable.

Doctrine of Man and Sin: Recommended Reading

However, Pelagianism did not just go away, and indeed it will always have its adherents in every generation, for mankind is man-centered by nature.

Man and Sin: A Theological View by Piet Schoonenberg

The grace of God enlightens the mind and enables a man to think morally and be conscious of good or evil. All of these doctrines are intertwined.
