The audience response approach provides a framework for analyzing earlier theories. Parents want to buy books that engage, excite and challenge their children and that their kids love. Willy and Biff reveal actions that traditional psychoanalysis call unconscious motivations.

Tragedy and Tragic Theory by Richard Hudson Palmer

In an effort to bring order to the explanations over two millennia, Tragedy and Tragic Theory lucidly analyzes the principal ideas about tragedy from Plato to the present. One way that Hamlet's cleverness is shown in this play is the way that he reacts after he sees his father's ghost for the first time.
