Unlike the state statutes cited earlier, Rule 11 a 2 is not limited to instances in which the pretrial ruling the defendant wishes to appeal was in response to defendant's motion to suppress evidence. If there is a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the record must include, without limitation, the court's advice to the defendant, the inquiry into the voluntariness of the plea and the plea agreement, and the inquiry into the accuracy of the plea.

Rule 11. Pleas

First, the charge may be reduced to a lesser or related offense.

However, the policy considerations relevant to this issue are better dealt with in the context of standards governing in-custody interrogation by the police. As a consequence, a defendant who has lost one or more pretrial motions will often go through an entire trial simply to preserve the pretrial issues for later appellate review.

Rule 11. Pleas

The reference to the Fifth Amendment was deleted from the description of the Supreme Court's decision in Booker. The Committee intends by its approval of Rule 11 e to permit the parties to agree on such terms in a plea agreement.

Rule 11. Pleas

Rule 35A; In re Valle, 364 Mich. Failure of a court to advise a defendant of the possibility of a restitution order would constitute harmless error under subdivision h if no restitution were thereafter ordered. There are valid reasons for a judge to avoid involvement in plea discussions.

It is still true, as the Supreme Court pointed out in McCarthy, that thoughtful and careful compliance with Rule 11 best serves the cause of fair and efficient administration of criminal justice, as it will help reduce the great waste of judicial resources required to process the frivolous attacks on guilty plea convictions that are encouraged, and are more difficult to dispose of, when the original record is inadequate. It is contemplated that the judge may participate in such discussions as may occur when the plea agreement is disclosed in open court. If a defendant refuses to enter a plea or if a defendant organization fails to appear, the court must enter a plea of not guilty.

The claim that the lack of a full trial record precludes effective appellate review may on occasion be relevant. The judge may, and often should, defer his decision until he examines the presentence report.
