In fact, the imminent prospect of self-government did prompt Irish trade unionists including the socialist and future Easter Rising rebel James Connolly to actually organize a parliamentary Labour Party in 1912.

Daily Life in the British Parliament: Home Rule

The significant Local Government Ireland Act 1898 following the English Act of 1888 introduced for the first time the enfranchisement of local electors, bringing about a system of localised home rule in many areas. Several Cornish Liberal Democrat MPs such as , and former MP are strong supporters of Cornish devolution .

Government of Ireland Bill 1893

The 2007—2011 Assembly the third since the 1998 Agreement was dissolved on 24 March 2011 in preparation for an to be held on Thursday 5 May 2011, this being the first Assembly since the Good Friday Agreement to complete a full term. It was on any view an instrument of policy of considerable crudity, especially if the notion of the consequential resettlement of populations is reinstated. Attempts at implementation failed in 1916 and 1917 and the subsequent 1919—1922 resulted in it never coming into force.
