Definition of Humanism

Human rights, culture, and the rule of law. What Does It All Mean? Digital tools that simulate the effects of these are also used.

Difference Between Eastern and Western Culture

What distinguishes the humanities from the is not a certain subject matter, but rather the mode of approach to any question. As such, a total of seven international human rights documents are argued to be infringed by the act of female circumcision. Both modern and traditional culture go this far, but here they often tend to diverge.

The Superiority of Western Values in Eight Minutes

Culture of any kind works best and longest if it is well adapted to local conditions.

Traditional Culture and Modern Culture: Man's Fall from Grace

Thus the argument of collective and traditional rights are interwoven into the arguments surrounding female circumcision.

Culture and Values a Survey of the Western Humanities Volume 2

The lack of definite answers to these ultimate questions leaves room for reasonable people to hypothesize about the origin of the natural universe, and even to hope for some form of life beyond this one.
