Hojo later left the command building to take up positions on the mountain, both to block Korosensei off and kill any intruders that infiltrated the base perimeter of Earth's Shield. For four years 1958 — 1962 he was world champion, and retired uncontested from competition. He also has bit of a trimmed hair on the front sides of his head.

Momentarily stunned, Hojo is immediately knocked to the ground by Karma's axe kick. While Okinawa began rebuilding from the war, Master Ueshiro enrolled in the newly-formed dojo of Grand Master Shoshin Nagamine, founder of Matsubayashi Shorin-Ryu. The revolt greatly shocked the Tokugawa shogunate, which took action to mollify the thousands of rōnin still in existence throughout , providing jobs and retraining them

He has black hair that is slicked back and light eyes that are covered with frameless glasses. Hojo managed to knock one student unconscious and almost took out before vowing to teach the students a lesson they would not forget. Despite such emotional and physical trauma, Master Ueshiro went on to become world renowned for mentoring others as much as his kumite skill and dexterity with the bo.
