Each State as defined in subsection w 7 D shall include, in the first report submitted under paragraph 1 after the end of each fiscal year, information related to— provider-related donations made to the State or units of local government during such fiscal year, and health care related taxes collected by the State or such units during such fiscal year. In the 50 years since Medicaid was enacted as Title XIX of the Social Security Act, Congress has made significant changes to statutory provisions governing eligibility, covered services, and financing. For purposes of this subsection, funds the use of which the Secretary may not restrict under subparagraph A shall not be considered to be a provider-related donation or a health care related tax.
