Hearth Tax records return online

Charles de Beauvais, rector of Withyham, Co. We make the hearth tax returns available to the research and teaching community and to a range of general users interested in a number of themes, ranging from family history to historical demography. On one side you find the church.

GENUKI: HIPPERHOLME

Possibly related to Mary Gardner b. The area has three medium-sized council housing estates Hillock Estate, Elms Estate and Victoria Estate which originally consisted of only council-owned properties.

Tatham and Botton Hearth Taxes

The Quakers were also a group of dissenters, and I recall that we have a record from that time where a John Speak viewed a Quaker meeting, and testified as to such, so the Speak family had to be from that area. The population in 1901 numbered 43,122.

Heapey

In this church too, we were met by a volunteer who did an exceptional job giving us a lovely tour. Despite this, tax assessments continued to list all tax payers, because ownership of property over £1 was a criterion of a right to vote. Thomas and Johannis were from Twiston, a mile or so down the road, probably the name of a farm of that time.

Tatham and Botton Hearth Taxes

About this Item: The Record Society of Lancashire and Cheshire, Liverpool, Great Britain, 1979. After attempts in 1630 and 1685 to enclose by agreement, and much acrimonious correspondence between the most substantial landowners, the Commons were enclosed by Act of Parliament.

Townships: Old and New Accrington

The assumption made is that in birth and death entries, it was the township, but a value judgement was made on each marriage entry. Chambers

Ltd Spring Waters ; Thomas L. Possibly Sir Thomas Adams, London merchant, draper and alderman.
