Sermon

When chosen we must respond so that God can do great things.

Let us beg him especially, as we are bound, to bless the most reverend Prelate, under whose jurisdiction we here live, and whose feast day this is; that the great name of Paul may be to him a tower of strength and fount of consolation now, and in death, and in the day of account. After the council, he was deposed.

The Son of Man must suffer many things: After hearing what the crowd thought of Him, Jesus then told them what He had really come to do: suffer, be rejected, be killed, and be raised the third day. Rather he became an and. Perhaps too many of us view giving as an occasion for grief or dread rather than an occasion for joy.

And, in the meantime, for their greater encouragement, let these materials of prayer be meditated upon, and made use of, as followeth. Peter may not have known what he said, but he knew what he saw — the cloud of glory was real, and he was wide-awake when he and the apostles saw it. Doctrine refers not to the method of teaching but to the content or the body of knowledge usually taught by speaking and which was constructed so as to shape the listener's will.

Contentment is not trimming down your desires.

Sermon Notes for 2 Chronicles 7:14 by Chuck Smith

The assurance that Jesus can provide — even miraculously — for all of our needs should be precious to us; it was to the earliest Christians. Sources and Auxiliaries of Pastoral Theology, 25 3. In truth, you set it free to be what it was always intended to be.

Sermon Notes for Matthew 7:7 by Chuck Smith

What is this secret place in God? The following discussion will not deal with all of these nuances of lógos.

Gospel Preaching in Acts

By analogy we note that spiritual sleep keeps many from seeing or experiencing the glory of God. The previous man was too quick to follow Jesus; this man was too slow. There is a sense that Jesus was frustrated with His disciples.
