History of the Institute

Few enslaved people were buried with expensive slate headstones. Banks in Boston and New York supplied loans to southern plantation owners to buy slaves and seed; northern insurance companies underwrote slave voyages to Africa and the lives of enslaved people. The Maryland Jesuits decided to sell 272 men, women and children — virtually their entire slave community — to two planters in Louisiana.

History of Loeb House

Yards and Gates: Gender in Harvard and Radcliffe History. Von Daacke says that Jefferson's ambivalence toward slavery can be seen in the design of the Academical Village. Wilson is hired to collect seeds and herbarium specimens for the Arboretum in China.

The History Behind Harvard University

It was held at a public library in New Orleans and had the feel of a family reunion.

Programs

They have caught the spirit of the times. They performs these fight songs and other cheers at football and hockey games.
