Duke Ellington: Genius Beyond Category

Particularly appreciated is the author's inclusion of notes at the end of each chapter highlighting the best available recordings from that particular phase of Ellington's career, with some background on each select. This is a very readable biography of Duke Ellington, hitting all of the important notes without getting bogged down in extraneous detail. If you do not receive your Zoom link information 24 hours prior to the start of the program, please for assistance. That set, which came in a somewhat awkward longbox and was mastered in the '80s, was merely adequate for its time, but this Buddha-imprinted version has been remastered, upgraded, and reconfigured into a more convenient shape and size -- and is even cheaper than the old collection.
