Who was Herodias in the Bible?

While Perennis was still ignorant of these developments and anticipated nothing of the sort, the emperor sent for him at night and had him beheaded. Similar Latin constructs include Caesariani, which means both the household and servants of Caesar and his political supporters, and Pompeianoi, followers of Pompey the Great. According to Patrich and Arubas, the tomb is too modest to be Herod's and has several unlikely features.

Inside this is a second of similar thickness, 18 feet from the first.

Apostle Herodian

4* Luxury Athens city hotel

All who were present pitied him, and some cried out in their grief, unable to control themselves.

The Temple Mount in the Herodian Period (37 BC

BUT before long another plot was organized against Commodus. One of these was the Herodians, a group that supported the Roman leader, King Herod Antipas, who reigned from 4 BC to AD 39.

Herodian of Antioch, History of the Roman Empire (1961) pp.11

The issue was of no interest to Josephus. A shrewd, highly capable woman, she had assumed imperial responsibility with her husband. BUT the time had finally come for Commodus to cease his mad antics and for the Roman empire to be rid of this tyrant.

Herodian

The manuscript tradition is discussed in the preface of the Teubner edition 1883 by K.

Herodian dynasty

But some of his court companions interfered and tried to corrupt the character of the naive emperor.
