

What evidence is there to support the use of sensory integration techniques by occupational therapists when working with children aged 2-11 within the autistic spectrum?.

Oxford Brookes University - Helping Children With Texture Aversions to Food

Description: -

-What evidence is there to support the use of sensory integration techniques by occupational therapists when working with children aged 2-11 within the autistic spectrum?.

-What evidence is there to support the use of sensory integration techniques by occupational therapists when working with children aged 2-11 within the autistic spectrum?.

Notes: Thesis (B.Sc.) - Oxford Brookes University, Oxford, 2002.

This edition was published in 2002

Filesize: 41.72 MB

Tags: #21 #Autism #Speech #Therapy #Strategies #that #Improve #Communication

Self Regulation

Occupational therapy practitioners can work directly with clients, provide professional development for staff, and work in collaboration with other team members and families.

21 Autism Speech Therapy Strategies that Improve Communication

Occupational therapy utilizes the public health approach to mental health WHO, 2001 which emphasizes the promotion of mental health as well as the prevention of, and intervention for, mental illness. One Level I systematic review indicated that most studies were of low quality and findings were mixed.

An evaluation of sensory processing training on the competence, confidence and practice of teachers working with children with autism

Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists Association canadienne des ergothérapeutes. It is nice to finally know what some of James' problems are and how we can help him.

Teachers' perspectives on handwriting and collaborative intervention for children with Autistic Spectrum Disorder

Ellie can use her knowledge of Sensory integration theory to develop strategies for individual clients to use within the home or school environment to support learning and everyday routines.

Related Books

- Deafness in mind - working psychologically with deaf people across the lifespan
- Rural water supply and health - the need for a new strategy : summary of papers and discussions from
- De menor a presidiário - trajetória inevitável?
- Examination of some factors which affect the effective operation of the Duke of Edinburghs Award Sch
- Hermine - an animal life : a novel