The Lhakhang houses images of Guru Nangsi Zilhon complete triumph over all illusory appearances, or the great subjugator , the Guru Tshengye eight manifestations of Guru Padmasambhava and the Gongdue Lhatshog images of Abhipraya Samaja. As the ritual continues, the evil spirits who are present are attracted by the flickering of the scarves and are then captured and held in the linga a torma -surrounded by a triangular case that holds them fast.

Shulchan Arukh, Orach Chayim 11

During the reign of the 5th Desi, Gedun Chophel, in 1698, the Dzong caught fire and was restored. These may vary, but most commonly include a phurba attached to scarves held in the right hand, and a skull-cap decorated with cowrie shells held in the left.

On Rosh Hodesh, we remove the Tefillin before Musaf. In 1747 the Dong was enlarged at the initiative of the 13th Desi, Chogyal Sherab Wangchuk. The two then proposed to move it from Dhechenphodrang and build a new Dzong at the site of its currant location.

Zhanazhol Map

Rama: This refers to a place where the Sefer Torah is returned after U'ba Lezion, however, according to the custom of our province where we return the Sefer Torah right away , we should not remove it like similar days.
