MA French and Business

The combination of French and Business makes an excellent primer for a range of careers in business and industry, the diplomatic and civil services, and non-governmental organisations, including in areas such as translating and interpreting where having both linguistic and business skills is especially valuable. It can be used in many situations, particularly in the process of something not yet accomplished, as opposed to something that has been accomplished. This extends to cigarette breaks, too—if you smoke, that is.

Business dictionary

If a person does two things at once, the likelihood is that the end result will be anchored in mediocrity, due to a half-hearted effort. Look for Roots When you can, memorize French words that share a root at the same time. Have dreams of reaching an advanced French level? This increases your vocabulary exponentially.

International Gift Giving Etiquette

It starts with the most relevant results for your search, meaning that the results matching exactly the term or phrase you are looking for will be displayed on top and it continues with other results that will help you get a clearer picture of how and when the term is used. Salut — Hi Considered one of the more casual French greetings, salut is appropriate when you see someone again later in the day. How will I be assessed? Expert Kara Ronin, who runs her own company Executive Impressions in Lyon, guides newcomers to the French business scene with the following 10 points to help you make a deal, not break it.
