During the remainder of 1979, FORSCOM developed and carried out an updated mobilization improvement program designed to correct the deficiencies stemming from MOBEX 78, the first simulated, government-wide mobilization since World War II. This represented the first step towards widespread introduction of renewable energy sources into the Nation's economy. Any activity not specifically listed below may still be eligible for the GP; applicants are advised to contact the Corps for a specific eligibility determination.

Draft policy, programming and fiscal guidance : FY 1982

In short, we must continue to seek free—but fair—trade. Combined Arms Center CAC at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, organized the test bed effort itself, including the establishment of a Test Group at Fort Lewis, Washington; and CAC and the Test Group planned for testing in fiscal years 1981, 1982, and 1983 through 1987, the years in which the project is programmed but not yet in the budget. Principal planning products of AMOPS will be the HQDA Mobilization Plan and major command mobilization plans, which collectively will be called the Army Mobilization Plan.
