History Since Confederation

. Over the next eight years, 158 Canadian soldiers would die in Afghanistan, and hundreds more would be wounded. Most governments were slow or unable to respond and were replaced by others at the first opportunity.

Historian Ramsay Cook helped define modern Canada

The harsh ultramontane attacks on liberal Catholicism and freedom of thought in Québec alarmed Protestant opinion in English Canada, while the lack of toleration of Catholic minority school rights and of the French language outside Québec infuriated the Québécois see. Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 1976.

History Since Confederation

He was a tall, barrel-chested man who sported a large, waxed moustache. In Ottawa meanwhile, Mulroney had tried and failed to win the Quebec government's endorsement of the Constitution via the constitutional accord, which became the central political drama of his first term in office. Saskatoon: Western Producer Prairie Books, 1983 Roby, Yves.
