2021 Global life sciences sector outlook

To decrease foreign dependencies, there is a growing trend for bringing production back onshore, or reshoring.

Pharmaceutical and Life Sciences challenges and strategies for the future: PwC

Audrey was previously a Law Lecturer at the University of Malaya, Malaysia, prior to moving to Singapore in 1993. Audrey was the representative of Singapore to the Asian Patent Attorneys Association APAA Designs Committee for four years where she presents the country report on developments in law in this area.

Events

Our technology law practice also involves conducting due diligence investigations and negotiating terms regarding IP ownership and technology dependencies in connection with internal IP audits, mergers and acquisitions, public offerings, and other strategic transactions. He has also assisted clients in making applications to be admitted to the MAS Fintech Regulatory Sandbox. Regulatory bodies can have fairly extensive powers in this regard.

Singapore

A Singapore citizen will be liable under section 37 of the PCA for corrupt behaviour, even if such behaviour took place outside Singapore. Rolling reviews for vaccines was one of their expedited regulatory tools for emergencies that also includes rapid scientific advice, accelerated marketing authorizations, and compassionate use programs.

Events

He was named by Legal 500 as being experienced in regulatory compliance matters in our Financial Services Regulatory practice, which was ranked Tier 1 from 2017 to 2021.

Events

Wilson Ang is a litigation and disputes lawyer based in Singapore. A lot of pharma companies will need to leverage their partners instead of manufacturing the products themselves.

By helping them to begin managing their IP in alignment with their business and mission, our clients have changed the way they look at IP. He counsels directors and senior management on corporate ethics and personal liability. Wilson focuses on conducting internal investigations on business ethics and anti-corruption matters, often involving the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the UK Bribery Act, the Singapore Prevention of Corruption Act and regional anti-bribery laws.
