NOT an institution such as a hospital or nursing home. We do abnormal pap follow up to ensure that clients get the care they need by facilitating communication with physicians.

Essentials of Community

In this model students are encouraged to understand not only the phases of learning inherent in the internship experience, but also to develop self-understanding as they participate in this experience. The triple aim: care, health, and cost. The program is small which allows for flexibility in student schedules; they also offer blended courses.
