In Paul greets several people, with the most notable of these being Priscilla and Aquila.

St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans: A Pastoral Commentary

There are a handful of biblical books for which there is no shortage of commentaries.

An Analysis of the Epistle to the Romans by J. B. Lightfoot

Romans I was born out of Karl Barth's experiences as a minister with the Safenwil workers, and from studying under Wilhelm Herrman, that resulted in socialistic and liberal Protestant themes laden throughout Romans I. This is one of the most thorough commentaries on this book, and because it deals with every aspect of the Greek text, it does require a working knowledge of the original language.
