Exodus Devotional Commentary

But the Passover meal and the Mystical Supper also the Passover Meal? As men are not honouring matter, they do not choose the most precious from the less precious; they honour the image, whether made of putty or of copper. Thomas Aquinas, its Patron and Protector, whose statue was in one of the niches of the church, seeing a niche which was in sight without a statue, he foretold that his own statue would be placed there after his death, because he would be reckoned among the pro- tectors of the city ; as is related in his Life by John Baptist Castaldi, and by Francis di Lombardi, in his notes on the sixty-ninth letter of S.

Allusion Report

And again:— Recognise the blessedness of the martyr heartily, that you may be a martyr in will; thus, without persecutor, or fire, or blows, found worthy of the same reward. It is sweet and honorable to die for the fatherland.

A Foretaste of Wisdom: Liturgical Spirituality and Theology [Edited 1

We need not, then, be in any way surprised to find the same principle of secondary causes at work in the supernatural scheme which has been set up by the Divine Wisdom for our redemption and for the sanctification of our souls. This is what has been revealed by the Incarnation, Crucifixion, and Resurrection. The Son being of the same substance as the Father, He can justly say that He has what the Father has.

Luke 1 Commentary

We may melt all our jewelries to create an enormous golden crown for her but still it is nothing because the Lord crowned her with stars. I am God, your Creator. Luke's Gospel contains many precious things which are not recorded in the other three Gospels.

Institutes for Christian Spirituality

The college of priests was divided into twenty-four courses divisions. Radical forms spoke of the messianic transcendence of Torah, and required Sabbatean followers to emulate him, either in private or publicly.

Library : The Hour That Makes My Day

But where Aristotle concluded that the greatest being must be aware only of himself, Augustine emphasized an opposite and distinctly Christian theme: God loves creatures supremely to the point of becoming incarnate in Christ in order to be revealed to them and to reconcile them to himself.

Luke 1 Commentary

Then when we think of the parables, it is striking to note how many are only related in this Gospel. Political, Religious, and Love Poems. He allows His sun to shine upon the just and unjust, and His rain to fall upon the wicked and the good alike.

University Park and London: Pennsylvania State University Press, 1989. Just in the same way iron when ignited is not by nature hot and burning to the touch, it is the fire which makes it so. Accordingly, a person could perceive something by sheer act of divine will, without the object being there at all.
