The Bible versus the of

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Amillennialists believe the number 1,000 is figurative and that we are currently in the millennium some premillennialists and postmillennialists also believe 1,000 is figurative. One is saved by faith and trust in Jesus Christ alone and no church is given the authority to impart God's blessing on anyone or to convey any special status with God.

What does the Bible teach about church structure?

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

What Does the Bible Say About Trustees?

Baptists believe the biblical concepts of the priesthood of all believers and of soul competency do not undermine the important role of the pastor. Calvinism is named after John Calvin, a theologian and pastor during the Protestant Reformation. This means that the Roman Catholic Church falsely teaches that Mary is our advocate when in truth only Jesus is our Advocate.

What Does the Bible Say About Baptism?

The Baptist Church ignores every thing the Bible says about what a child of God can do. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. Noah did not deserve to be saved by God.

What Is Wrong With The Baptist Church

Let's examine what the Bible says about this important subject.
